The election is over and the delegates who are to frame the constitution for New Mexico can now oil up the machinery in their brain shops and get ready to evolve plans and specifications. The result of the election should be reasonably to the people of Chaves county, for the candidates in the field were all men of ability and high standing, and the voter couldn't possibly make a bad selection so far as the men were concerned. We are of the opinion that no county in the Territory will be better represented than Chaves, even though politically many are disappointed.

INSPIRES MORE.

A. T. Stewart was but an ordinary Scotch merchant, plus an extraordinary application.

Rufus Choate read from the same law books as his classmate, but he kept reading until he understood them.

Half a dozen men had the Restinghour idea in their heads, but they lacked the doggedness to get it out and fit to a car. A magazine writer interviewed old Phineas Phillips, the Lumber King on the subject of his success. "Young man," he replied. "I got where I am by not stopping until I arrived. The trouble with most folks is that they mistake success for a sort of measles and lie around hoping they'll catch it." Information soon becomes obsolete in an age where improvement dismantles more machinery than wear and tear—which incubates sky-scrapers over-month—which sets up a creed one week upsets it the next—which creates a hero yesterday and changes his laurel wreath to a fool's cap tomorrow. No man is secure who feels a sense of security. Self-complacency is a forest—it kills growth. Self-satisfaction is a rust—it dulls brilliance. The universe wants new ways of doing old things and the new ways become old over-night.

The twentieth century was born without a memory—it's so busy with today's achievements and tomorrow's projects that no one has time to remember yesterday's exploits.

An eager Americanism is measuring off centuries in ten-year lengths—crowding weeks of energy into hour spaces. Every day the earth takes a turn that readjusts the aspect of existence; every hour reveals a new pattern of the future. New combinations of circumstance are putting novel phases upon affairs.

Old Cyrus Simmons built a sizable town before he stopped building wagons. He played a great many stylish rags in his day and came ruler—he rule hadn't much style to him, but they were as solid as his wheel—they didn't wobble. When ever a candidate for future partnership stopped at the cashier's window for his first week's pay envelope, in addition to his wages he found a little red card of rules. Cyrus didn't copyright the rules, so you'll get a chance to profit by them too.

Rule 1.—Don't lie—it wastes my time and yours. I'm sure to catch you in the end and that's the wrong end.

Rule 2.—Watch your work and not the clock. A long day's work makes a long day short and a day's short work makes my face long.

Rule 3.—Give me more than I expect and I'll pay you more than you expect. I can afford to increase your pay if you increase my profits.

Rule 4.—You owe so much to yourself that you can't afford to owe anybody else. Keep out of debt or keep out of my shops.

Rule 5.—Dishonesty is never an accident. Good men, like good women can't see temptation when they meet it.

Rule 6.—Mind your own business and in time you'll have a business of your own to mind.

Rule 7.—Don't do anything here which hurts your self-respect. The employee who is willing to steal for me is capable of stealing from me.

Rule 8.—It's none of my business what you do at night. But if dissipation affects what you do next day and you'd half as much as I demand, you'll last half as long as you hoped.

Rule 9.—Don't tell what I'd like to hear, but what I ought to hear. I don't want a valet to my vanity, but I need lots of them for my dollars.

Rule 10.—Don't kick if I kick—if you're worth while correcting you're worth while keeping. I don't waste time cutting specks out of rotten apples.

The end of a reputation depends very largely upon its beginnings. An unsafe foundation continually threatens everything that rests upon it. A little more time spent in beginning life right will save years of after effort in setting right a false start. Reputations must be built of sound timber or they can't last.—Printers' Ink.

A GOOD POSITION

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $80 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Memphis, Tenn., or Columbia, S. C.

Kenna precinct cast a distressingly weak vote Tuesday, there being only 64 ballots deposited. As we have about 600 voters in the precinct our election was a very tame affair. I was not a lack of interest, but is on account of the demand Texas and Oklahoma has made on us for cotton pickers. Our people are "not at home," so callers. Following is the vote, as returned by the election board.

Green B Patterson, 28; Emmitt Patton, 29; G. A. Richardson, 30; John I Hinkle, 29. Socialists.

Frank Frost, 26; H. J. Schwartz, 26; F. M. Murchison, 26; T. A. Williams, 25. Republicans.

E. A. Cahoon, 11; J. H. Elliott, 9; H. J. Hagerman, 9; Elza White, 8.

It Saved His Leg.

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swenson, of Watertown, Wis., ten years of eczema that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklin's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infalible for Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds Cuts, and Piles 25c at all Druggists.

From The Roswell Record.

Albuquerque N. M., Sept. 7.—The Republicans have carried the Territory and will have 69 delegates in the constitutional convention to 31 Democrats. These are the latest figures and are not likely to be changed.

In this city the Democrats polled a large vote, but this was offset by the Mexican vote from the country, and but one Democrat, Ferguson, finally pulled through in the county, so that the Republicans will have seven delegates to the Democrats one.

The votes by counties follows:

County	Rep.	Dem.
Bernalillo	7	1
Chaves	4	4
Colfax	6	2
Curry	4	2
Dona Ana	4	2
Eddy	1	3
Grant	3	1
Guadalupe	2	1
Lincoln	1	1

The Lash of a Fiend

Would have been as welcome to A. Cooper of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by all Druggists.

Local.

Harry Bowman, of Roswell, was a Kenna visitor this week.

Mrs. W. B. Scott and Mrs. J. D. White were visiting in Roswell a few days this week.

Most of our small stockmen have been away this week dipping cattle.

W. H. Cooper and family have moved into the ranch house north of town, to be handy to winter school.

H. C. Cramer is back on his claim, and has filed on additional land. He now has a fine 350 acre farm.

Oscar Robertson had charge of the barber shop this week while his father was away dipping cattle.

Farmers are beginning to harvest their fodder crops. There is going to be a great deal more feed than was counted on a month ago.

The Kenna Milling Co., got in a carload of corn this week and it is being ground into chops. We had a feed famine on before this shipment arrived.

A wedding occurred last Sunday at the West hotel. The contracting parties were from Olive, and as we expected a report of the affair from our Olive correspondent we did not look up the particulars. It will probably appear next week. Justice Northcutt performed the ceremony.

FACETHE SUN.

Just at this time when an epidemic of pessimism seems to be running riot over the country, we should take advice of that unknown writer who says:

Don't hunt after trouble but look for success.

You'll find what you look for; don't look for distress.

If you see but your shadow, remember I pray,

That the sun is still shining, but you're in the way.

Don't grumble, don't bluster, don't dream and don't shrink;

Don't think of your worries, but think of your work.

The worries will vanish; the work will be done,

No man sees his shadow who faces the sun.
